Do we look like tourists?

This month CoRy has Really made gReat pRogress pRonouncing his Rs. He does a great job as a little helper when we ask him to do specific tasks. He still loves playing BuzzLightyear, Batman, and any superhero he can think of. He is also starting to write letters. He still enjoys Bible School with mom and has learned about Jonah, Job, and Joseph. Lydia has really enjoyed doing puzzles and still copies Cory all the time. Her rebelliousness is becoming more and more evident, but she even rebels in a sweet way. Her nic-name on the street is "boneka" – "doll". Lydia talks about the baby often and is always saying, "When I become a mommy/daddy/boy I will...." During family worship they both memorized all of Psalm 8! They also both love playing with Ibu Riri, our helper, and they are learning lots of Indonesian from her.
