

Cory-Lyd Chronicals

May 2005

So much has happened since February! We said goodbye to friends in Bandung (left), We had fun in Malaysia getting our new Visa (center), We got tired moving into our new home and took a nap (below),

We used the stove box as a "warung" (little convenience store), we celebrated Mother's Day with dad, and we went to a Buddhist monastery with our landlords who are Chinese Buddhist (below). Cory loves daily Bible school, we both love playing "Go Fish," and we're making lots of new friends (top picture). We love you!
